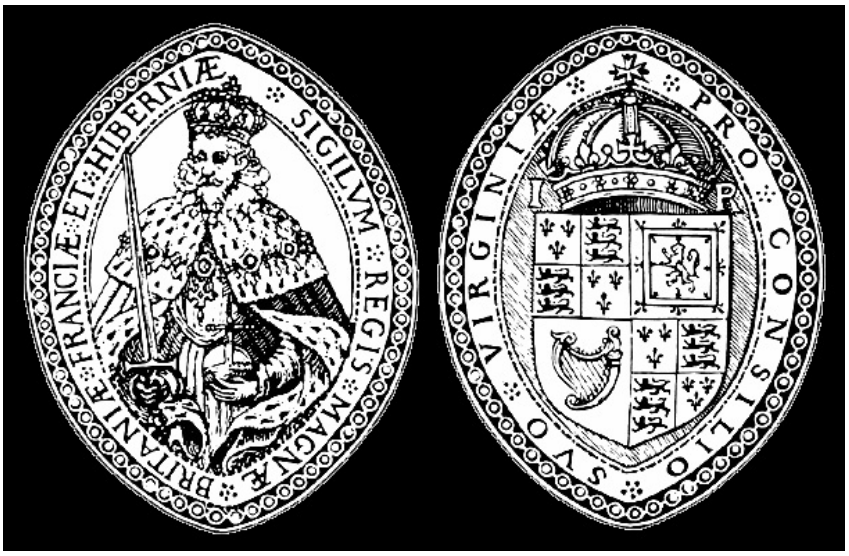
DEDICATION BY THE KENTUCKY SOCIETY TO THE QUADRACENTENNIAL OF JAMESTOWNE, VIRGINIA



Seal of the Virginia Company 1606

Four-hundred years ago, on May 13, 1607, one-hundred-four British settlers, under the auspices of the Virginia Company of London, established Jamestowne–the first permanent British colonial settlement in the World. Despite annual death rates approaching seventy-five percent for new settlers, in the colony's first two decades, Virginia survived. Jamestowne, thus, became the birthplace of the British Empire, what would become the United States of America, and the Anglican Church in America.

On July 30, 1619, it also became the birthplace of representative government in the Western Hemisphere, with the convening of the first House of Burgesses–a legislative body which still exists today. Born out of a joint stock company that eventually promoted the tobacco culture through private enterprise and land ownership, Virginia laid the foundation for American capitalism and for an economic system that is the envy of the World. Out of this most remarkable of British colonies grew the Commonwealth of Kentucky.

It is, thus, to the brave adventurers who founded Virginia to whom we solemnly dedicate this edition of the Register.

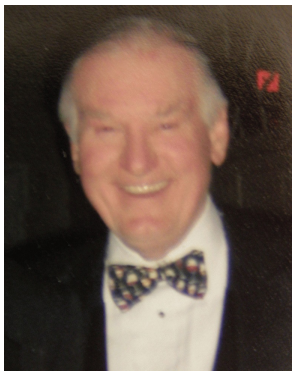
We also have the honor of dedicating this edition of the Register to three long-time and outstanding Kentucky Society members, who each hold high office in the General Society of Colonial Wars: Gerald Gettys Tyrrell of Louisville, Dixon A. Barr of Lexington, and John Frederick Dorman III of Falmouth, Virginia.

GERALD GETTYS TYRRELL



The man who would become one of the most successful Governors in the Kentucky Society's history was born on December 27, 1938 in China, where his father was in service as a British diplomat. Warrior Tyrrell's mother was from Louisville and was a member of the National Society of Colonial Dames in the Commonwealth of Kentucky. After her husband's retirement, the family moved to Louisville.

Warrior Tyrrell was graduated in the top ten of his class at Louisville's Male High School, and he received his B.A. from Yale University in 1960. Over the next thirty years, he rose to be a senior officer of, what is now, National City Bank, Kentucky. He then retired to pursue other interests.

One of his greatest interests has been the Society of Colonial Wars. Warrior Tyrrell has been active in the Kentucky Society for over thirty years, having joined in 1969. He served many years as both Treasurer and Secretary before becoming Governor in 1999-2005. His hard work and devotion as Governor have ushered in a period of growth and activity never before seen by the Kentucky Society.

During his administration, the Kentucky Society's membership increased from 189 to over 370. In addition to his own extensive personal efforts to successfully recruit members, he established a new membership committee devoted to identifying, evaluating and assisting candidates for membership. A team of genealogists was assembled to aid prospective members with their genealogical research. This record-breaking growth resulted in requests by other state societies in the General Society for Warrior Tyrrell to assist them in their membership development efforts. By the end of his last term as Governor, the Kentucky Society had surpassed all but the New York Society in size.

The tremendous upsurge in membership brought with it an associated increase in life membership payments and other income. These funds were placed in the Kentucky Society's restored endowment fund, at the Louisville Community Foundation, which had been organized by Warrior T. Kennedy Helm, Jr. The fund grew from $10,000 to over $140,000 during this period–enabling the Kentucky Society to further its purposes at a level never before seen.

The creation of the annual Thomas Kennedy Helm, Jr. Scholarship is just one of the many activities now made possible by the increased endowment revenue. Another was the placing of historic markers at three different colonial sites in Kentucky during Gov. Tyrrell's administration–Ft. Harrod in Harrodsburg, McConnell Springs in Lexington and Royal Springs in Georgetown. To aid with local genealogical research, a program was instituted to donate colonial-era genealogical resource material to the library of the Sons of the American Revolution's national headquarters in Louisville.

The Color Guard also thrived under Gov. Tyrrell's administration. Making only its first uniformed appearance at the 1999 Winter Court, on the night of Warrior Tyrrell's election as Governor, the Color Guard increased in number from three to four, and a new officer's uniform was commissioned. In addition to providing distinctive openings at the Kentucky Society's Courts, the Color Guard also began trooping the colors at the General Society's annual white tie ball during Gov. Tyrrell's first year in office.

With increased membership and the new attractions, attendance at the Kentucky Society's bi-annual Courts rose from 80-100, at the start of Gov. Tyrrell's administration, to an average of 180-200 at its end. Those in attendance, moreover, represented a greater diversity in both age and statewide residence.

Several special events were also held during Gov. Tyrrell's administration. A luncheon and presentation were held at the Pendennis Club on March 22, 2000 with noted British military historian, Sir John Keegan. A reception and tour were held on January 1, 2002 at Louisville's Speed Museum during an exhibit of paintings from the National Portrait Gallery in Washington, DC. Later that year, on July 17th, a lunch was held with Warrior Owsley Brown Frazier at the Pendennis Club during which he outlined his plans for the Frazier Historical Arms Museum. A tour of the exhibit, "All the Queen's Horses," at the Kentucky Horse Park in Lexington, was held on July 26, 2003 followed by fine repast at Spindletop Hall. As the crowning event of Gov. Tyrrell's administration, the Kentucky Society hosted the General Society's 99th General Council meeting in Louisville in 2005. Many Warriors later commented that it was one of the best General Society meetings that they had ever attended.

Along with the hard work of many dedicated Warriors, Gov. Tyrrell's vision, leadership, and devoted work began period of unprecedented prosperity that continues to this day. That plus Warrior Tyrrell's financial background were factors in his election as Treasurer General of the General Society for one term, in 2004-2007, and now as Lieutenant Governor General in 2007. If events unfold as would normally be expected, Warrior Tyrrell is on his way to becoming only the second member of the Kentucky Society to lead the General Society as its Governor General.

It is with great pleasure that the Kentucky Society dedicates this edition of the Register to Warrior Tyrrell, who is truly one of its all-time most influential members.

The Rev. Canon Dr. DIXON A. BARR

Dixon A. Barr was born in Crown Point, Indiana on January 14,1932, but, for much of his adult life, he has made his home in Kentucky. He was first married to the former Charlotte Louise Van Deren and, following her death, married Frances Fairfax (Keller) Swinford of Lexington. He is a father of three and has four grandchildren who all, like himself, reside in Lexington.

Dr. Barr's involvement as an educator, priest as well as a member and leader of numerous lineage societies is extensive and truly remarkable. He received his B.A. from Ball State University and his M.A. and Ph.D. from Columbia University. In 1965, he was appointed as the first Dean of the College of Education at Eastern Kentucky University and was the youngest such dean in the United States at the time. He retired as Dean in 1993, after having received the Award for Distinguished Professor in 1988. In 2007, he was one of the first group of honorees to be placed on the College of Education's Wall of Honor.

Following his retirement, Dr. Barr prepared to enter the ministry at the University of the South, Saint George's Jerusalem, and at the Lexington Theological Seminary. Ordained as a priest in the Episcopal Diocese of Lexington, Dr. Barr was made a Canon of Christ Church Cathedral in Lexington, where he served until his retirement from the priesthood.

Dr. Barr's diverse interests go well beyond his career as an educator and his calling in the ministry. Long an avid historian and genealogist, he is, without question, one of the leading figures in the lineage society community of the United States. Not surprisingly, such interest led him to join the Society of Colonial Wars in the State of Indiana more than fifty years ago. He joined the Kentucky Society in 1977 and was one of the organizers the Central Kentucky Chapter, for which he served as its first Lieutenant Governor in 1999-2002. In April of 2007, he completed ten years of service as Historian General of the General Society and was, significantly, named as one of nine current Life Members of the General Council.

In addition to the Colonial Wars, Dr. Barr is a member of the following twenty-nine other lineage societies and has held significant office, as noted below, in several:

-The Hereditary Order of Descendants of Colonial Governors (Governor 1991-1993)
-National Society Sons of Colonial New England (Governor General 1991-1993)
-Order of Americans of Armorial Ancestry (President General 1993-1995 & 1995-1997)
-National Society Sons and Daughters of the Pilgrims (Governor General 1997-1999)
-The National Huguenot Society (President General 1999-2001)
-Order of the First Families of Maine (Governor General 2007-2009).
-Society of the Cincinnati in the State of Delaware
-Society of Mayflower Descendants (former Executive Committee Member At-Large of the General Society and former Governor of the Kentucky Society)
-Colonial Order of the Acorn
-Order of the First Families of Rhode Island and Providence Plantations
-National Society Sons of the American Revolution
-General Society Sons of the Revolution
-Order of Founders and Patriots of America
-Presidential Families of America
-Society of Descendants of Colonial Clergy
-Order of Descendants of Colonial Physicians and Chirurgiens
-National Society Sons and Daughters of Antebellum Planters
-Sons and Daughters of the Colonial and Antebellum Bench and Bar 1565-1861
-Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company of Massachusetts
-National Society Descendants of Early Quakers
-Society of Indiana Pioneers
-North American Manx Association
-St. Andrew's Society in the State of New York
-Hereditary Order of Descendants of the Loyalists and Patriots of the American Revolution
-The Hereditary Society of the Founders of Manakin in the Colony of Virginia (Associate Member)
-First Families of Georgia, 1733-1797 (Associate Member)
-The Society of the Friends of St. George's Chapel, Windsor Castle
-Guild of Colonial Artisans and Tradesman 1607-1783
-First Families of Kentucky (Chaplain)

Dr. Barr's membership, support and work in so many of these organizations has greatly aided their mission to preserve and promote our early national history. His service as the national leader of six earned him membership in the National Gavel Society, and he has also been an Advisor of the Hereditary Society Community. Dr. Barr is also a proud member of The Most Venerable Order of the Hospital of St. John of Jerusalem.

The Kentucky Society is honored to have such a distinguished individual as one of its leading and most active members.

JOHN FREDERICK DORMAN III, C.G., F.A.S.G, F.N.G.S, F.V.G.S.

Born in Louisville on July 25, 1928 and now a resident of Falmouth, Virginia, "Fred" Dorman received his B.A. in 1950 from the University of Louisville and M.A. in Librarianship in 1951 from Emory University. He served in the Army Security Agency in 1951-1953 and was subsequently Assistant Archivist at the College of William & Mary in 1953-1956.

Having joined the Kentucky Society of Colonial Wars in 1948, few living members have been associated with the Kentucky Society for so long. Warrior Dorman is also a member of the District of Columbia Society of Colonial Wars and was its Governor in 1980-1981. He was the Deputy Registrar General of the General Society in 1969-1981, and he is one of only nine current Life Members of the General Council.

In 1956, Warrior Dorman developed his life-long interest in genealogy into a full-time profession in Washington, DC and, since 1990, in Stafford County, Virginia. In 1958, he became the youngest person in history to be made a Fellow of the American Society of Genealogists. Recognized as the highest regular honor bestowed upon American genealogists, such fellowships are extended only to those who have shown exemplary scholarship in their published genealogical work, and they are limited in number to fifty at any given time. Warrior Dorman served as the Treasurer, in 1959-1966, and President, in 1982-1985, of the American Society of Genealogists, and he is now the senior living Fellow.

Warrior Dorman was also a founder of the Board of Certification for Genealogists in 1964, serving as Trustee 1964-1984, President 1979-1982 and Executive Director 1983-1996. He is a Fellow of both the National Genealogical and Virginia Genealogical Societies. He taught at the National Institute of Genealogical Research at the National Archives 1963-1974 & 1977-1993 and at the Institute of Genealogical Historical Research at Samford University in 1977-1988.

The volume and quality of Warrior Dorman's work is truly prodigious. From 1957-2006, he was the editor and publisher of The Virginia Genealogist, which is widely regarded as the preeminent state genealogical journal and one the finest of all such journals in the United States.

Upon completion of fifty annual volumes and three cumulative indexes, the journal ceased publication in 2006. Recognized as the leading living genealogist on Virginia research and one of the leading researchers in the last six decades, Warrior Dorman has published seventy-eight volumes of record abstracts covering seven Virginia counties as well as fifty-one volumes of Revolutionary War pension records for Virginia soldiers. Additionally, he has compiled several major genealogies of various families including the Claiborne, Epes and Preston families. He is presently working on a comprehensive eight-generation genealogy of the descendants of Robert Slaughter of Virginia–having just completed one of the crowning works of his career.

That work is the second of his two revisions of the preeminent genealogical source for early Virginia families, Adventurers of Purse and Person 1607-1624/5. Commissioned by the Order of First Families of Virginia, for which he has been the verifying genealogist for over twenty-five years, Mr. Dorman's revision of the single-volume Third Edition of this work, in 1987, took this publication to a new level of detail and scholarship. His work on the new Fourth Edition has been truly monumental. From 2004-2007, he expanded its coverage from four to six generations requiring three volumes covering over three-thousand-four-hundred pages. It will long remain the essential source for early Virginia genealogy.

With such work, it is not surprising that, in 2006, Warrior Dorman was awarded only the fourth Coddington Award of Merit ever given, by the New England Historic Genealogical Society of Boston. The award was created in 1987 to "recognize the highest standard of excellence in American genealogical scholarship and lifetime achievement in the field." Praised by NEHGS for his "encyclopedic knowledge of Virginia families," Warrior Dorman has one of the most brilliant minds in genealogy and has the highest professional integrity. That integrity is perhaps no better illustrated by his decision to disqualify his own and only early Virginia line–thus, preventing him from joining the Order of First Families of Virginia that he has so long served.

Warrior Dorman is, however, a member and has held positions in several outstanding lineage societies, in addition to the Society of Colonial Wars, including: Society of the Cincinnati in the State of Virginia; Sons of the Revolution (President of DC Society 1982-1985 & General Registrar 1976-1985); Sons of the American Revolution (President of DC Society 1967-1968); Jamestowne Society; Hereditary Order of Descendants of Colonial Governors (Governor General 1973-1976); and the National Society of Descendants of Lords of the Maryland Manor (President 1985-1989).

Highly regarded by leading scholars in American genealogy as one of the all time most distinguished genealogists, the Kentucky Society is greatly honored to count him as a long-time member.

FOUNDATION & PURPOSES OF THE SOCIETY OF COLONIAL WARS

The General Society of Colonial Wars

On August 19, 1892, gentlemen from the States of New York, New Hampshire, New Jersey, Connecticut, and Virginia organized the Society of Colonial Wars in the State of New York, in New York City. The General Society of Colonial Wars was also organized in the same city on May 9 & 10, 1893.

Purposes of The Society of Colonial Wars

The Preamble of the Articles of Incorporation of the General Society of Colonial Wars, which sets forth the Society's purposes, provides the following:

> WHEREAS, it is desirable that there should be adequate celebrations commemorative of the events of Colonial History which took place within the period beginning with the settlement of Jamestown, Va., May 13, 1607, and preceding the battle of Lexington, April 19, 1775;
> THEREFORE, The Society of Colonial Wars is instituted to perpetuate the memory of those events, and of the men who, in military, naval, and civil positions of high trust, and responsibility, by their acts or counsel, assisted in the establishment, defense, and preservation of the American Colonies, and who were in truth founders of this Nation. To this end, it seeks to collect and preserve manuscripts, rolls, relics, and records: to hold suitable commemorations, and to erect memorials relating to the American Colonial period; to inspire in its members the fraternal and patriotic spirit of their forefathers, and to inspire in the community respect and reverence for those whose public services made our freedom and unity possible.

The Samuel Victor Constant Society

Instituted in 1991, the Samuel Victor Constant Society was created by the General Society of Colonial Wars to further two objectives. The first was to pay tribute to its founder, Samuel Victor Constant of New York, and as a means to further his legacy. The second was to support the philanthropic goals of the General Society. Warriors who make a contribution of at least $500 are eligible for membership in this fellowship. In addition, Warriors, State Society or the General Society may also nominate to the Society fellow Warriors or private citizens whose exceptional service has brought distinction to the Society of Colonial Wars or who have pursued careers which embody the principles for which the Society exists.

THE KENTUCKY SOCIETY: ITS ESTABLISHMENT & HISTORY

Establishment & Courts

The Society of Colonial Wars in the Commonwealth of Kentucky was chartered by the General Society on December 19, 1895, as the fourteenth state society. Its charter members were: Dr. Thomas Page Grant, Capt. Alexander Macomb Wetherill, David May Jones, William Lafon Halsey, Col. Benjamin LaBree, John Franklin Lewis, Charles Julian Clarke Grant, Cary Harrison Bacon, and Dr. Charles Henry Todd. On December 23, 1895, the members met at the residence of Dr. Thomas Page Grant, the first Governor, in Louisville. There, they adopted a Constitution, elected part of the Society's first officers, and, after a social session, adjourned to hold a General Court on January 8, 1896. The time for holding the General Court was fixed for May 13, the anniversary of the settlement of Jamestown, Virginia. At the final session of this first General Court, the remainder of the officers were elected.

By 1951, the date of the annual General Court, customarily marked by a formal banquet, had been changed to a date fixed by the Council, usually in May or early in June–as the Society's Summer Court and Banquet. Also, the Society has held a Winter Court and Banquet, usually during the first week of December, and this Court is now the General Court, at which elections are held.

The Kentucky Society's Courts are customarily formal events, with black tie required. Over the years, the Society has usually met at one of three Louisville venues–the Pendennis Club, the Louisville Country Club, or the River Valley Club. After the Society outgrew the capacity of the River Valley Club, it customarily held the Winter Court at the Pendennis Club and the Summer Court at the Louisville Country Club for many years. The Society's Centennial Court and Banquet were held at the latter venue, as a white tie optional event, on Thursday, December 7, 1995. All of the Society's Courts since that time have been held at the Pendennis Club, due in part to its larger ballroom.

Central Kentucky Chapter

In an effort to promote the Society's membership in Cental Kentucky, a semi-formal reception was held at the John Hunt Morgan House in Lexington on Sunday, July 12, 1998. This event led to the creation of a Central Kentucky Chapter on December 3, 1998 and the creation of a Lieutenant Governor for Central Kentucky–the first of whom was Rev. Dr. Dixon A. Barr.

The Central Kentucky Chapter is the first chapter created in Kentucky. It was inspired by the Georgia Society, which was the first State Society to create a chapter. Following Georgia's example, the Central Kentucky Chapter was created to provide a means for Warriors living in the Lexington environs to gather more conveniently than at the Society's semi-annual meetings in Louisville, in order that they may more fully enjoy, participate in and promote the Society.

*** *** ***

As part of its mission to fulfill the purposes of the Society of Colonial Wars, the Kentucky Society has erected historical markers, conducted dedications, and performed other activities in Kentucky to mark and promote colonial history:

Historical Markers

Ft. Harrod (1774), Harrodsburg, Mercer County	1936
Ft. Harrod (1774), Harrodsburg, Mercer County	October 1, 2000
McConnell Springs (1775), Lexington, Fayette County	September 23, 2001
Royal Springs (1775), Georgetown, Scott County	April 25, 2004

The Laban Phelps Jackson Memorial Color Guard presented the colors at all but the first of these marker unveiling ceremonies. Dr. Thomas Clark spoke at the ceremonies at Ft. Harrod, in 2000, and at McConnell Springs. Warrior & Historian Ron Bryant spoke at Royal Springs. Cocktails and dinner were served following each of these three ceremonies–with the most notable venue being Lexington's Idle Hour Country Club, following the McConnell Springs dedication.

Dedications

Ft. Nelson (1778), Louisville, Jefferson County (trees planted)	1970s

Major Gifts

In 1967, the National Society of Colonial Dames in the Commonwealth of Kentucky had an opportunity to purchase the Sutherland property in Frankfort, Kentucky. This property was located between the historic sites of Liberty Hall and the Orlando Brown House, which the Colonial Dames managed and owned, respectively, and it broke up this otherwise significant historic district. In addition to the donations of 248 Colonial Dames and 31 "interested friends," the Kentucky Society made a substantial contribution towards this property's $58,000 purchase price and, thus, helped enable its purchase by the Colonial Dames.

Mameluke Sword of the United States Marine Corps

From 1987 thru 1998, the Kentucky Society annually presented the traditional Marine dress sword, known as the "Mameluke Sword," to Kentucky's outstanding Marine Officer Candidate. This gift was instituted by Kentucky Society Governor and former Marine, S. Tilford Payne, Jr., due in part to its Kentucky connection.

The sword first became associated with the United States Marine Corps after its epic victory in the War against the Barbary Pirates, in 1801-1805. Following that victory, Sheik Hamet Karamanli, who had backed the United States, presented a Mameluke Sword to Marine Lieut. Pressley O'Bannon, who was from Logan County, Kentucky.

On its presentation by the Kentucky Society to the Marine Officer Candidates, Warrior Payne would tell them:

> When the shells start raining in and you feel that you are about to cut and run, there will be 10,000 shrapnel shrouded ghosts that will rise and shout, "Stand Fast Marine, Stand Fast!" . . . and you will stand fast.

T. Kennedy Helm, Jr. Colonial History Fellowship

The creation of the T. Kennedy Helm, Jr. Colonial History Fellowship was finalized by the Council on September 20, 2005 to award a deserving graduate student with a $5,000 scholarship in colonial history. Named in honor of Warrior T. Kennedy Helm, Jr., who was Governor General of the Society, the award is made annually to a student from one of the four Kentucky universities offering graduate programs in history.

The inaugural recipient was University of Louisville graduate student, Donald J. Baker, Jr., who was presented with his scholarship at the June 6, 2006 meeting of the Society.

Kentucky Society Members's Service As General Society Officers

By virtue of the General Society's organization, each constituent State Society is entitled to a permanent representative on the General Society's Council–known as the Deputy Governor General. In addition, however, a number of Kentucky Society members have held other distinguished positions in the General Society.

Most notably, Thomas Kennedy Helm, Jr. served as Governor General in 1990-1993. He had previously held a number of other General Officer positions.

Four living Kentucky Society members have also held, or are now serving in, several significant positions. John Frederick Dorman III served as Assistant Registrar General and is one of only nine current Life Members of the General Council. Another such Life Member is Rev. Dr. Dixon A. Barr, who completed ten years of service as Historian General, at the General Society's meeting in April of 2007. Also at that meeting, Gerald Gettys Tyrrell completed a three-year term as Treasurer General and was elected as the Lieutenant Governor General. Finally, at that same meeting, Rev. Robert Todd Giffin was created as the General Society's first Assistant Chaplain General.

General Society Meetings in Kentucky

The Kentucky Society has had the honor of hosting four General Society meetings, in Louisville. The first was the 5th General Assembly that was held in May of 1908 and was based at the Seelbach Hotel. The records of this Assembly's activities have not been preserved. However, that is not the case for the other three gatherings.

Based at the Brown Hotel, 62nd General Council Meeting was held over May 12-14, 1949 and involved the following:

Thursday: Cocktails given by Kentucky Society Governor, Alexander M. Watson, at the Alibi Club (adjacent to the Brown Hotel).

Friday: business meeting in the Satterwhite Room of the J. B. Speed Art Museum; lunch at 1908 Howard Street as guests of Messrs. Owsley, Robinson, Lyons & Garvin Brown; tour of Louisville; cocktails at Melcombe, the residence of Mr. & Mrs. Barry Bingham, Sr.; and banquet at the Louisville Country Club.

Saturday: business meeting at The Filson Club; lunch at the River Valley Club; and the races at Churchill Downs.

The 88th General Council Meeting on May 19-22, 1988 was also based at the Brown Hotel and involved the following:

Thursday: viewing of The Kentucky Show, on Theater Square; cocktail reception at The Filson Club; and Kentucky Center for the Performing Arts for a special presentation of Traditional American Music of the late 1800s Hometowns, by the Jack Daniel's Silver Cornet Band.

Friday: continental breakfast at the Brown Hotel; business meeting on the 25th floor of the Humana Building (Warriors) and tour of Old Louisville (spouses); lunch at the Kentucky Derby Museum followed by the races Churchill Downs; and reception and dinner at the Louisville Country Club.

Saturday: continental breakfast at the Brown Hotel; business meeting at Calvary Episcopal Church (Warriors) and tour of Frankfort, visit at Science Hill Wakefield Scearce Gallery in Shelbyville followed by lunch at Old Stone Inn in Simpsonville (spouses); option of box lunch and trip to Patton Museum at Ft. Knox or lunch at the Pendennis Club; formal (white tie preferred) cocktails and banquet at the Brown Hotel's Crystal Ballroom.

Sunday: continental breakfast at the Brown Hotel; Worship at Calvary Episcopal Church, using the 1662 Prayer Book; tour of National Headquarters of the Sons of the American Revolution; optional tours of Shakertown with lunch at Shakertown Trustees House followed by paddle boat trip on the Kentucky River, or tour through horse farms, the Kentucky Horse Park and the Headly-Whitney Museum.

In honor of the Seelbach Hotel's centennial anniversary of its current building in 2005, the 99th General Council Meeting returned to this grand hotel over May 12-15, 2005, with the following activities:

Thursday: Colonial Tennis Tournament at the Louisville Country Club; and reception at the Crystal Ballroom of the Brown Hotel.

Friday: continental breakfast at the Seelbach Hotel; business meeting at the Pendennis Club (Warriors) and tour of Locust Grove (spouses); cocktails and lunch at the Pendennis Club with Shelby Collum Davis Speech by centenarian and Kentucky's eminent historian, Dr. Thomas Clark; cocktails and tour of the Frazier Historical Arms Museum; dinner at the Louisville Country Club.

Saturday: continental breakfast at the Seelbach Hotel; business meeting at Churchill Downs (Warriors) and tour of Speed Museum (spouses); cocktails and lunch in the Triple Crown Room, Churchill Downs; the races at Churchill Downs–including a race sponsored by the Society of Colonial Wars; and formal (white tie preferred) cocktails and banquet at the Seelbach Hotel's Medallion Ballroom.

Sunday: continental breakfast at the Seelbach Hotel; Worship at Christ Church Cathedral; farewell buffet at the Seelbach Hotel; optional tours of the Patton Museum at Ft. Knox or Gainsborough (horse) Farm in Versailles.

THE LABAN PHELPS JACKSON MEMORIAL COLOR GUARD

In 1998, Kentucky Society Governor, Laban Phelps Jackson, proposed that the Kentucky Society explore forming a uniformed color guard. Then Captain of the Color Guard, Daniel Noble Klinck, mustered members of the Dr. V. Edward Masters Memorial Color Guard of the Louisville-Thruston Chapter, Kentucky Society Sons of the American Revolution, who were fitted with rented redcoat uniforms: they presented the colors at the Summer Court, on May 28, 1998, at the Pendennis Club.

This presentation was so successful that there was general support in forming the Society's own uniformed color guard–the first constituent society in the General Society to do so. Although the position of Captain of the Color Guard had been created on March 10, 1989, there was no established color guard until 1998. Joining Warrior Klinck that year were Warriors William Pfingst Carrell II and James David Sympson. It was decided to adopt the uniform of His Majesty's First Regiment of Foot (see below), from the French & Indian War period. The three new uniforms were to be authentic replicas crafted in such a way as to allow for quick changing from formal attire. The Society paid for the primary uniform components, and the individual color guard members purchased their own hats and smaller accouterments. While every effort was made, it was not possible to make these uniforms completely authentic.

The new Color Guard made its debut at the December 8, 1999 Winter Court at the Pendennis Club in Louisville, which was Warrior Jackson's last meeting as governor. Following his untimely death in 2000, the Color Guard was named in his honor by act of the Council on November 2, 2000. With Warrior Carrell as its new Captain, the Color Guard has opened every Kentucky Society meeting since the 1999 Winter Court. It has also had the honor of posting the colors at the formal ball of every General Society meeting–beginning with the General Council Meeting in Cincinnati, Ohio on May 13, 2000 thru and including the General Assembly in Williamsburg, Virginia on April 28, 2007. Appropriately, Warrior Klinck has been the General Society's Chairman on the Committee of Flags since 2000.

In 2003, Warrior Terry Orville Brown joined the Color Guard, and a new fully authentic uniform was created for an officer's role in the Trooping of the Colors ceremony. This uniform was hand-tailored by a husband and wife team, who were unknown to the Guard at the time that the original three uniforms were made. The four-man Color Guard first presented the colors at the Winter Court, on December 3, 2003, at the Pendennis Club.

Subsequently, in 2006, Warrior Paul Baker Whitty joined the Color Guard as its first drummer, and he first appeared at the December 6, 2006 Winter Court at the Pendennis Club. For all but the officer, the guardsmen replaced their tricorn hats with grenadier hats in 2007, and these new accouterments were first used at the Summer Court, on June 6, 2007. This occasion also marked the first use of a new drum and a fifer, playing "British Grenadiers," where previously the primary instrumental accompaniment had been provided by a bagpipe, playing "Scotland the Brave."

Arms of His Majesty's First Regiment of Foot
(On The Drum Facing)

1st Of Foot
The Royal Regiment

As noted, the Color Guard chose the uniform of the First Regiment of Foot for its own, from the circa 1759 period, when this regiment served in the French & Indian War in North America. The regiment had dark blue facings on its coat collar and cuffs and black pants–thus, allowing formal trousers to double as uniform trousers at the Society's Courts. The choice of this regimental uniform was, in part, inspired by a photograph taken by Warrior Klinck of a reenactor at the 1995 Grand Encampment, where there was the re-dedication of the 1895 Colonial Wars monument at Louisbourg, on Cape Breton Island in Nova Scotia. The First Regiment had been involved in capturing this formidable French fort in 1758 during the French & Indian (or Seven Years) War.

The following brief history of the Regiment was compiled by Warrior Whitty.

The Royal Scots, the 1st Regiment of Foot and holders of the coveted position at the right of the line, is the oldest surviving regiment in the British Army and the senior regiment of infantry. It was formed in 1633 under a royal warrant issued by King Charles I to John Hepburn, who was authorized to recruit in Scotland in order to add a body of men who were survivors from much earlier regiments. These earlier regiments are so old that their origins are obscure, and, so, the Royal Scots, as the First Regiment is sometimes called, lay claim to an ancestry of considerable antiquity. It is not for nothing that the regiment is nicknamed "Pontius Pilate's Bodyguard." (This nickname comes from a legend that, prior to the Resurrection, Christ's tomb was guarded by Caledonian (Scottish) legionnaires.)

NEMO ME IMPUNE LACESSIT

Nemo me impune lacessit. "No one wounds me with impunity" is the royal Scottish motto, used historically for the Kingdom of Scotland, where it appeared on the Royal Arms of Scotland. Today, it is the motto the British monarch uses when in Scotland, and it appears on the British Royal arms, when in use in Scotland.

It is also the motto of the Order of the Thistle, the Scottish order of knighthood–the second oldest in Britain–and of the British Army regiments The Royal Regiment of Scotland and Scots Guards. It was also the motto of the former Royal Scots, Royal Highland Fusiliers and Black Watch regiments.

According to legend, the "guardian thistle" has played its part in the defense of the ancient realm of Scotland against a night attack by the Danes, one of whom screamed in pain when he stepped on a prickly thistle, thus alerting the Scottish defenders.

OFFICERS OF THE SOCIETY OF COLONIAL WARS IN THE COMMONWEALTH OF KENTUCKY FROM ITS ORGANIZATION

All Officers serve one-year terms. Officers and Councillors-at-large, who serve staggered three year terms, are elected at the Society's Winter Court.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR MEMBERSHIP

Article II of the General Society's By-Laws provides:

"Any male person above the age of eighteen years, of good moral character and reputation, shall be eligible to membership in the Society of Colonial Wars, provided he be lineally descended in the male or female line from an ancestor:

(1) Who served as a military or naval officer, or as a soldier, sailor or marine, or as a privateersman under authority of any of the Colonies which afterwards formed the United States; or in the forces of Great Britain which participated with those of the said Colonies in any wars in which the said colonies were engaged, or in which they enrolled men during the period from the settlement of Jamestown, May 13, 1607, to the battle of Lexington, April 19, 1775; or

(2) Who held office in any of the Colonies between the dates above mentioned, as
- (a) Director General, Vice Director General, or member of the Council, or legislative body, in the Colony of New Netherland;
- (b) Governor, Lieutenant or Deputy Governor, Lord Proprietor, member of the King's or Governor's Council, or of the legislative body, in the Colony of New York, the Jerseys, Virginia, Pennsylvania, or Delaware;
- (c) Lord Proprietor, Governor, Deputy Governor, or member of the Council, or of the legislative body, in Maryland, the Carolinas, or Georgia;
- (d) Governor, Deputy Governor, Governor's Assistant, or Commissioner to the United Colonies of New England, or member of the Council, body of Assistants, or legislative body, in any of the New England Colonies;
- (e) a Justice, Judge, Justice of the Peace, or other judicial officer.[1]

The following rules regulate the proof of eligibility and descent, and construe the foregoing:

1. The correctness of statements as to eligibility and pedigree must be proved by reference to original sources or to authoritative works containing quotations from or references to such sources and by certified or sworn copies of records and documents in conformity with these rules.

2. Public or family tradition alone will not be accepted as proof.

3. Public records must be proved by duly certified or sworn copies. Documents not public records must be proved by sworn copies or facsimile reproductions.

4. References to records or printed books must clearly indicate the citation and give title or description, and volume and page, and the edition if there is more than one.

[1] "Judicial officers" include Clerks of Court, Sheriffs, and Constables.

5. Where eligibility is claimed based upon military service, it is necessary to show membership in an organized military unit. Service cannot be presumed because of military titles used in Probate or Registry Records or on Tombstones or the like. Claims based on alleged service in the Plymouth Companies, so-called, of 1643, will not be accepted merely because the ancestor's name appears on the lists given in the Plymouth Records, Pierce's Colonial Lists, Bodge, etc., as such lists are merely lists of men between the ages of sixteen and sixty able to do military duty, and not rosters of organized Military Companies. It is not sufficient to show than an ancestor was "killed by the Indians"; it is incumbent on the applicant to show that the ancestor was qualified under the eligibility clauses of the Constitution.

6. Where a claim is based on service in the British Forces, applicant must show that the British unit participated with the forces of the Colonies in military duties or that the Colonies raised troops to take part in the war in which the British troops engaged. It is not sufficient to show only that the ancestor was in the British military or naval service.

7. The expression "Governor's Council of New Jersey" is to be construed to include those persons associated with the Governor in the government of the Province or Colony as a Council. Membership in the Council of the Proprietors does not constitute eligibility.

8. The terms "Governor," "Lieutenant Governor" and "Deputy Governor" are to be construed to include only the Officers with those titles of the thirteen colonies that united to form the United States and not officials of settlements or portions of colonies, such as Nantucket or Martha's Vineyard, that had local officers sometimes called by these names.

9. The term "Lord Proprietor" is to be construed to apply to such Proprietors as William Penn and Lord Baltimore, who were equivalent to Governors in the Charter and Royal Colonies, and not to the Patrons or Lords of the Manor, so-called in New York, or other colonies. The term Lord Proprietor in New Jersey is to be construed to include all those persons who were proprietors until the surrender of the right of government to the Crown in 1702.

10. The term "Commissioner" is to be construed to apply only to the Commissioners to the United Colonies of New England, and does not include Indian or other Commissioners appointed in New York and other colonies.

11. The expression "Legislative Body" includes only a body having authority to make laws and does not include Conventions or other bodies having power only to protest or remonstrate. The Twelve Men, the Eight Men, and the Nine Men of New Amsterdam will not be accepted as qualifying ancestors.

PREFACE TO ROLL OF MEMBERS

Each living member's name, address, membership numbers, date of membership to the Kentucky Society and life member designation, where applicable, are listed along with the member's ancestor(s). For deceased and resigned members, all but their address is provided.

Each ancestor listed contains any appropriate title, name, years of birth and death (if known), and the town/county & colony where he resided at the time of his service. The listed information is based, in some cases, only on the information contained in the member's lineage papers. Except for an appropriate title, the service of the ancestors is not provided due to space constraints and the fact that this information is available in the new edition of the Roster of Ancestors, published by the General Society in 2007. Titles that will be listed include military and civil titles, with the former usually given precedence over the latter. Titles for civil positions are only given for higher offices. Two titles will be generally given if the ancestor has a civil position that is at least comparable to his military one or two military titles of equal weight. For purposes herein, service in a colony's legislative assembly will be included with a military rank, unless two ranks equivalent to a general officer were held. An index of the ancestors listed in this edition of the Register is provided.

It is noteworthy that many of the lineages approved in earlier years have been found to be either wrong or deficient of sufficient documentation for modern genealogical standards. The General Society now requires that all lines predating 1962 be re-documented, if they are to be used again. The following abbreviations are used herein:

[3]Originally, Suffolk County, which takes in the eastern half of Long Island, was settled by the British as part of the Colony of Connecticut while the western half was under Dutch rule. However, after the Dutch were conquered by the British, Suffolk County was annexed into the Colony of New York by 1663.

[4]These islands were formed into their own, unchartered, colony in 1642 by Thomas Mayhew. In 1663, they were annexed into the Colony of New York and, then, in 1691, into Massachusetts.

[5]Originally, North & South Carolina made up a single colony, having been formed in 1663 when the territory was granted to eight Lord Proprietors by King Charles II. The two Carolinas were spit into separate proprietary colonies in 1710.

[6]This colony was founded in 1638 and merged into the Colony of Connecticut in 1662.

[7]This island has an identical history to Martha's Vineyard, except that the Mayhew proprietorship ended very early.

[8]Founded by the passengers of the Mayflower, Plymouth Colony remained independent until 1691, when it merged into Massachusetts.

CONSTITUTION
SOCIETY OF COLONIAL WARS
IN THE
COMMONWEALTH OF KENTUCKY

ARTICLE I

Name of the Society

(1) This Society shall be known by the name of the "Society of Colonial Wars in the Commonwealth of Kentucky." It recognizes the authority of the "General Society of Colonial Wars," and all its proceedings shall be subject to the Articles of Incorporation, Bylaws and regulations of said General Society.

(2) To the extent permitted by the Articles and Bylaws of the General Society of Colonial Wars, this Society may have one or more Chapters, which shall be established from time to time by resolution of the Council of this Society, and shall remain in existence at the will of the Council. Each Chapter shall be composed of sufficient members of this Society residing in a single geographic area to permit its members to carry out the purposes of this Society.

ARTICLE II

Objects of the Society

THE SOCIETY OF COLONIAL WARS is instituted to perpetuate the memory of the events of American Colonial history, and the men who, in military and naval service, and in civil positions of trust and responsibility, by their acts or counsel, assisted in the establishment, defense, and preservation of the American Colonies, and were in truth the founders of the Nation. To this end it seeks to collect and preserve manuscripts, rolls, relics and records; to provide suitable commemorations or memorials of events in Colonial History, and to inspire in its members the fraternal and patriotic spirit of their forefathers, and in the community respect and reverence for those whose public services made our freedom and unity possible.

ARTICLE III

Membership

ANY MALE PERSON above the age of eighteen years, of good moral character and reputation in the community, shall be eligible for membership in this Society, provided that he is lineally descended in either male or female line from an ancestor–

(1) Who served as a military or naval officer, or as a soldier, sailor or marine, or as a privateersman under authority of any of the Colonies which afterwards formed the United States; or in the forces of Great Britain which participated with those of the said Colonies in any wars in which the said Colonies were engaged, or in which they enrolled men during the period from the settlement of Jamestown, May 13, 1607, to the battle of Lexington, April 19, 1775; or

(2) Who held office in any of the Colonies between the dates above mentioned, as

(a) Director General, Vice Director General, or member of the Council, or legislative body, in the Colony of New Netherland;

(b) Governor, Lieutenant or Deputy Governor, Lord Proprietor, member of the King's or Governor's Council, or of the legislative body, in the Colony of New York, the Jerseys, Virginia, Pennsylvania, or Delaware;

(c) Lord Proprietor, Governor, Deputy Governor, or member of the Council, or of the legislative body, in Maryland, the Carolinas, or Georgia;

(d) Governor, Deputy Governor, Governor's Assistant, or Commissioner to the United Colonies of New England, or member of the Council, body of Assistants, or legislative body in any of the New England Colonies;

(e) A Justice, Judge, Justice of the Peace, or other judicial officer.

ARTICLE IV

Officers, Gentlemen of the Council, and Committees

(1) The OFFICERS of the Society shall be a Governor, a Deputy Governor, one or more Lieutenant Governors, a Deputy Governor General, a Secretary, a Treasurer, a Registrar, a Historian, a Chaplain, and a Surgeon,[9] all of whom (except the Deputy Governor General, who shall be elected at the annual meeting immediately preceding each General Assembly of the General Society, for a three year term) shall be elected annually at the General Court, and they shall be ex-officio members of the Council.

Each Chapter may nominate, subject to confirmation by the Council, a Lieutenant Governor, a Chapter Secretary and a Chapter Treasurer, or if desired a Chapter Secretary-Treasurer.

[9]Contingent upon the vote of the Membership at the December 2007 Court, this language will be modified to read "a Surgeon, and a Captain of the Color Guard"

(2) There shall be in addition to the officers, eighteen Gentlemen of the Council, who shall serve for three years each. They shall be divided into three classes of six each. The terms of one class of six shall expire at each General Court.[10]

(3) The Officers above named, with the eighteen[11] Gentlemen of the Council of this Society, shall have the direction, control and management of the funds, property, estate and business of the Society, and shall fill any vacancies that may occur in any of its officers until the next General Court of the Society.

(4) The Officers above named, together with six[12] Gentlemen of the Council (to serve for three years) shall be elected at the General Court. A plurality vote shall elect, and the said officers and Gentlemen of the Council shall hold their several positions for the terms prescribed in this Constitution, or until their successors shall have been elected.

(5) A quorum of the Council shall consist of eight members, and all actions of the Council shall be by majority of those present, unless a greater vote is required by this Constitution or the Bylaws for specific actions.

(6) Standing Committees shall be established in the Bylaws, and there shall be such further committees, standing or ad hoc, as may be appointed from time to time by the Governor or the Council. The chairman and members of all committees shall be appointed by the Governor.

ARTICLE V

Delegates to the General Assembly

At the General Court, there shall be appointed by the Governor, five delegates to the General Assembly, and five alternates to the same. Any vacancies in their number shall be filled as directed for other officers. The Governor, if able to attend such meetings, shall automatically be among the five delegates.

[10]Contingent upon the vote of the Membership at the December 2007 Court, this language will be modified to insert twenty-seven for eighteen and nine for six as follows: "There shall be . . . a maximum of twenty-seven Gentlemen of the Council . . . They shall be divided into three classes of a maximum of nine each. The terms of one class of nine shall expire at each General Court.

[11]Contingent upon the vote of the Membership at the December 2007 Court, this word will be replaced by "a maximum of twenty-seven."

[12]Contingent upon the vote of the Membership at the December 2007 Court, this word will be replaced by "a maximum of nine."

ARTICLE VI

Election of Members

(1) MEMBERSHIP is by invitation only. An invitation shall be given only by the Council, who shall vote on each name by ballot, one adverse vote in five to cause rejection of the candidate. The procedure for nomination and election shall be established in the Bylaws.

(2) Every member shall declare upon honor that he will use his best efforts to promote the purposes of the Society, and will observe the Constitution and Bylaws of the same; and shall sign a declaration that he will support the Constitution of the United States.

ARTICLE VII

Purposes

AT EVERY MEETING of the Council, the purposes and general welfare of the Society shall be considered, and measures taken to promote and secure them. No party political question of the day or existing controversial religious subject shall be discussed or considered at any meeting of the Society.

ARTICLE VIII

Commemorations

THE SOCIETY shall celebrate yearly some martial event in Colonial history as a festival day, and its members shall dine together at least once a year.

ARTICLE IX

Insignia, Diploma, Seal and Flag

THE INSIGNIA shall be set forth in the Bylaws, but in any event the Insignia and Diploma shall conform to those of the General Society.

Flag

The flag of this Society shall consist of the red cross of St. George on a white field, bearing in the center the seal of the Society in Kentucky.

Seal

The Seal of the Society of Colonial Wars in the Commonwealth of Kentucky shall bear the following arms:

Per Chevron, first, Argent, a cross gules between four escutcheons each regally crowned, proper, the first and fourth escutcheons quarterly England and France, the second escutcheon Scotland, the third escutcheon Ireland, being the arms of Virginia; second, Argent, two friends embracing each other, proper, being the Arms of Kentucky; third, or an Indian's head, proper, emblamatic of the wars our ancestors fought with the Indians. The whole surmounted of the Royal Crown and inclosed within a garter bearing the legend, "Society of Colonial Wars in the Commonwealth of Kentucky."

ARTICLE X

Alterations and Amendments

ALTERATIONS OR AMENDMENTS of this Constitution may be adopted at any meeting or Court of the Society, provided that the Secretary shall have given all members in good standing notice that an amendment or amendments will be presented at such meeting, and the general purpose thereof.

BYLAWS
IN THE
COMMONWEALTH OF KENTUCKY

ARTICLE I

Committees

(1) There shall be appointed by the Governor a Membership Committee, the composition of which shall be known only to the Governor and the members of the Committee.

(2) There shall be such other standing ad hoc committees as shall be established from time to time by the Governor.

ARTICLE II

Vacancies and Terms of Office

Whenever an Officer of this Society shall die, resign, neglect to serve, or be unable to perform his duties by reason of absence, sickness, or other cause, and whenever an office shall be vacant which the Society shall not have filled by an election, the Council shall have power to appoint a member to such office pro tempore, who shall act in such capacity until the Society shall elect a member to the vacant office, or until the inability due to said cause shall cease; provided, however, that the office of Governor shall not be filled by the Council when there shall be a Deputy or Lieutenant Governor to enter on these duties. The Council may supply vacancies among its members under the same conditions, and should any member of the Council, other than an Officer, be absent from three consecutive meetings of the Council, without sufficient excuse, his place may be declared vacant by the Council, and filled by appointment until the election of a successor. Subject to these provisions, all Officers and Gentlemen of the Council shall, from the time of election, continue in their respective offices until the next General Court, or until their successors are chosen.

Officers

(1) The GOVERNOR, or in his absence the Deputy Governor or Lieutenant Governor, or Chairman pro tem, shall preside at all Courts of the Society, and shall exercise the duties of a presiding officer, under parliamentary rules, subject to an appeal to the Society. The Governor shall be a member ex-officio of all Committees. He shall have the power to convene the Council or the Society at his discretion and must do so upon the written request of five members of the Society, or upon like request of three members of the Council.

(2) The DEPUTY GOVERNOR shall perform the duties of the Governor in case of death, absence from the country, or inability of the Governor to act, and shall assist the Governor in the performance of his duties.

(3) A LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR living in Louisville shall assist the Governor in the performance of his duties, and in case of the absence, death, or disability of both the Governor and the Deputy Governor, shall perform the duties of the Governor. A Lieutenant Governor residing in the geographic area of each Chapter shall serve as the presiding officer of that Chapter, after having been nominated by the members of that Chapter and confirmed by the Council.

(4) The DEPUTY GOVERNOR GENERAL shall be an officer of the General Society, and shall represent this Society, to the extent appropriate and not exercised by others, in its relations to the General Society. In the event the Deputy Governor General is unable to attend a meeting of the General Council of the General Society, or a General Assembly, the Governor may appoint a proxy for the Deputy Governor General for the purpose of such meeting or Assembly.

(5) The SECRETARY shall conduct the general correspondence of the Society, and keep a record thereof. He shall perform such other duties as the Society or his office shall require. He shall have charge of the Seal, certificate of incorporation (if any), Constitution, Bylaws, minutes, historical and other documents and records of the Society other than those required to be deposited with the Registrar, and shall affix the Seal to all properly authenticated certificates of membership, and transmit the same to the members to whom they are issued. He shall notify the Registrar of all admissions to membership. He shall certify all acts of the Society, and, when required, authenticate them under seal. He shall have charge of the printing and of publications issued by the Society. He shall give due notice of the time and place of the holding of all Courts of the Society and meetings of the Council. He must call a meeting of the Council on the written request of three members thereof, and of the Society on the written request of five members of the same. He shall keep fair and accurate records of all the proceedings and orders of the Society and the Council, and shall give notice to each Officer or member who may be affected by them, of all votes, resolutions and proceedings of the Society or Council. At the General Court, or more often, he shall read the names of those members whose resignations have been accepted or who have been expelled for cause. In his absence from any meeting, a Secretary pro tem may be designated by the presiding Officer.

(6) The TREASURER shall collect and keep the funds and securities of the Society. They shall be deposited in a bank in the city of residence of the Treasurer, to the credit of the "Society of Colonial Wars in the Commonwealth of Kentucky," and such funds shall be drawn thence on the order of the Treasurer for the purposes of the Society only. Out of these funds he shall pay such sums only as may be ordered by the Society or the Council, or as his office may require. He shall keep a true account of his receipts and payments, and at each General Court render the same to the Society.

For the faithful performance of his duties, he may be required to give such security as the Society may deem proper.

(7) The REGISTRAR shall receive and file all the proofs upon which membership or supplemental ancestral record has been granted, with a list of all diplomas counter-signed by him, and all documents which the Society may obtain, and he, under the direction of the Council, shall make copies of such papers as the owners may not be willing to leave in the keeping of the Society.

(8) The HISTORIAN shall keep a detailed record of all historical and commemorative celebrations of the Society, and, in conjunction with the Secretary, shall edit and prepare for publication such historical addresses, papers and other documents as the Council may see fit to publish. He shall also prepare a necrological list for each year, with or without biographies of the deceased members, which he shall report at the last General Court of the Society each year.

(9) The CHAPLAIN shall be an ordained minister of the Christian church (if a member of the Society is so ordained), and it shall be his duty to officiate when called upon by the proper Officer.

(10) The SURGEON shall be a practicing physician.

(11) In addition to the officers, there shall be a CAPTAIN OF THE COLOR GUARD, who may, but need not be, an Officer by virtue of his office, but shall be elected at the same meeting at which Officers are elected, and any vacancies may be filled by appointment to the unexpired term by the Governor. The Captain of the Color Guard shall be responsible for keeping the flags and stands owned by the Society, and for arranging to parade them at meetings of the Society. If requested by the Governor or Council, he shall arrange for the appropriate musical accompaniment during the parade and presentation of the flags.[13]

[13]Contingent upon the vote of the Membership at the December 2007 Court to approved the relevant Constitutional change referenced above, per action of the Council on September 12, 2007, this paragraph will be replaced by the following: "The CAPTAIN OF THE COLOR GUARD shall be responsible for the flags, stands, uniforms and related accouterments owned by the Society. He shall arrange and direct the trooping of the Colors at meetings of the Society."

ARTICLE IV

Courts

(1) The GENERAL COURTS of the Society shall be held in December, at such time and place as may be agreed on by the Council, and not less than ten days written notice thereof shall be mailed to the members in good standing.

(2) SPECIAL COURTS may be called by the Governor at such times as in his opinion the interest of the Society may demand, and must be called by the Secretary at the request of five members. All notices of meetings of Special Courts shall be mailed at least five days before the date of the meeting.

(3) Ten members of the Society shall constitute a quorum at any Court, provided that every member shall have been notified as required by these Bylaws; and when a quorum is once present at any Court, it cannot be broken by withdrawal of any member or members.

ARTICLE V

The Council

The COUNCIL shall meet as often as required at the call of the Governor, or at the call of the Secretary, or at the request of three of its members. Eight members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and when a quorum is present at the opening of a meeting, it shall not be broken by the withdrawal of any member or members. It shall perform the duties prescribed by the Constitution of the Society and these Bylaws, shall have general control and management of the affairs and funds of the Society, and shall cause a report of its proceedings to be made annually to the Society. The Council may for cause suspend any Officer, and its action must be reported to the Society for approval or the reverse within thirty days.

ARTICLE VI

Admission to Membership

(1) NOMINATIONS for membership may be made by any member in good standing, and must be seconded by a member in good standing. Such nominations and seconds shall be in writing, and mailed or delivered to the Secretary. Both the nominating member and the member seconding the nomination must personally know the candidate being nominated by them, and, by nominating said candidate, said proposing members thereby certify that their candidate will make an appropriate member of the Society.

(2) The SECRETARY shall deliver all nominations to the Governor, who shall promptly refer them to the MEMBERSHIP COMMITTEE. The Committee shall review the qualifications of each nominee (other than his line of descent), and shall report its recommendations with regard to the extension of an invitation to membership to the Governor. The Governor shall advise the Council of the recommendations of the Membership Committee, and the Council shall, at a duly called meeting, vote, in accordance with the constitution of the Society and by secret ballot, whether to extend an invitation to membership. Upon an affirmative vote of the council (one adverse vote in five to cause rejection), the Secretary shall promptly advise the Registrar of the name and address of each person invited to membership, and the Registrar shall extend a written invitation to membership on behalf of the Society, with which he shall enclose a form for accepting or declining the invitation, and information regarding current charges for membership in the Society. If the acceptance form is not returned within sixty days, the invitation shall be deemed to have been declined, and the Registrar shall so report to the Council.

(3) Upon RECEIPT of acceptance of the invitation to membership, the Registrar shall furnish application papers in the form prescribed by the General Society to the invitee, and upon their return shall review the same for apparent conformity to the requirements of the General Society, and if they appear to conform and bear all necessary signatures, shall forward them to the Registrar General. When the application has been approved by the Registrar General, and all charges due the Society have been paid, the nominee shall become a member in good standing and shall be assigned a Kentucky Society membership number by the Registrar. He shall be notified of his membership by the Registrar.

(4) IF ANY NOMINEE shall fail to file proper application papers within one year from receipt of invitation to membership, the Registrar shall advise the nominee that unless such papers are filed within six additional months, the nominee shall be considered as having declined membership. The Registrar shall advise the Council, at any meeting held during such six month period, of the names of nominees who have been so notified. If application papers have been received by the end of the six month period, the invitation to membership shall automatically stand rescinded, unless the Council shall, for good cause shown, extend the period for filing application papers.

(5) A member may, on his written request, be given a letter of demit to another State Society. The Registrar shall attach the written request of the member to his application papers for preservation, and shall notify the Registrar General of the action taken by the member.

(6) A member of another State Society may be elected to membership in this Society by vote of the Council in accordance with the Constitution, but only after attending at least one Court of this Society. Such person shall not be required to proceed as required of nominees who are not members of other State Societies.

ARTICLE VII

Addresses of Members

(1) IT SHALL BE THE DUTY OF EVERY MEMBER to inform the Secretary by written communication of his place of residence, and of any change thereof, and of his post office address. Service of any notices under the Constitution or Bylaws on any member, addressed to his last residence or post office address, forwarded by mail, shall be sufficient service of notice.

(2) In the event three consecutive mailings, postage prepaid, to the last mailing address furnished to the Secretary of the Society, shall be returned as undeliverable at that address (other than with a notation that the addressee has died), the member to whom the mailing is addressed will be deemed to have resigned from the Society, and his name shall be so shown on the records of the Society. Such member may, by filing a correct current address with the Secretary, and requesting return to membership (both in writing), be restored to membership; provided, however, that in the case of an annual member, such member shall pay to the Society all annual dues and all assessments which became due since the last payment made by such member.

ARTICLE VIII

Disqualification and Suspension

NO PERSON who may be enrolled as a member of this Society shall be permitted to continue in membership when his proofs of descent or eligibility shall be found to be defective. The Council, after ninety days' notice to such person to substantiate his claim, and upon his failure to do so satisfactorily, may require the Secretary to erase his name from the membership list. The said person shall have a right to appeal to the Society at its next Court or General Court. If the said appeal be sustained by a two-thirds vote of the members present at such Court, the said person's name shall be restored to the membership list.

Any member, for conduct inconsistent with the character of a gentleman and man of honor, or for serious disloyalty to the Society, or for other grave cause, may be suspended or expelled from the Society. The Council, after hearing such charges and giving him an opportunity to reply to them, may act by a two-thirds vote, and its action shall be final.

ARTICLE IX

Insignia

(1) The various insignia for the Kentucky Society shall be those adopted and approved by the General Society plus any others adopted by the Council that are not in conflict with the General Society’s Constitution or By-Laws.

(2) The Kentucky Society adopts and incorporates herein the General Society's rules on the wearing of insignia as set forth on pages 89-91 of The General Society of Colonial Wars Yearbook For the Year 2006–as reproduced in Appendix A.

(3) The distinctive emblem and designation of Office for the Governor shall be a star the size and pattern adopted by the General Society, having a diameter of three inches. This star may be worn only during his tenure of Office by the Governor, as prescribed by the rules set forth in Appendix A. The Governor's Star shall be and at all times remain the property of the Society.

(4) In addition to the Certificate of Membership prescribed by the General Society, or in lieu thereof, the Council may prescribe the form of any Certificates of Membership or Supplemental Lineages given by the Kentucky Society."

ARTICLE X

Fees and Dues

(1) THE INITIATION FEE, ANNUAL DUES, AND LIFE MEMBERSHIP FEE, and charges for the registration of the original or supplemental lines of descent shall be established by the Council from time to time, giving due regard to the charges or fees payable to the General Society.

(2) The Council shall have the power to drop from the roll the name of any member of the Society who shall be at least two years in arrears and shall fail on proper notice to pay the same within sixty days; and on being dropped, his membership shall cease; but he may be restored to membership at any time by the Council upon his written application and the payment of all such arrears.

ARTICLE XI

ARTICLE XII

Amendments

These Bylaws may be amended at any time, and from time to time, by the affirmative vote of those in attendance at any meeting of the Council at which a quorum is present.

APPENDIX A

Regulations For Wearing Insignia

The following recommendations governing the wearing of the insignia of the Society are those issued by the General Society and relate to Article IX above. They were designed to supplement the provisions of Article XVII of the Constitution of the General Society of Colonial Wars.

GENERAL REGULATIONS

The selection and wearing of attire appropriate to day or evening functions of the Society are left to the discretion of individual members, as determined by the dictates of good taste and acceptable social usage. However, as its courts, banquets, and related evening festivities are traditionally regarded as formal occasions, acceptable formal evening attire (i.e. dinner coat or full evening dress) is customarily worn at such functions.

REGULAR INSIGNIA AND ACCOUTERMENTS

The various insignia of the Society are worn only as prescribed herein, in accordance with regulations established by the General Council. Only members of the Society are at liberty to wear insignia of the Society. Society insignia are never to be worn as articles of jewelry.

SOCIETY ROSETTE: The rosette, a small bowknot ribbon in the Society colors of scarlet and white, designed toe be worn on the left lapel of the suit coat, jacket, or blazer (but never on a topcoat), may be worn during business and social hours. It may be worn with the dinner coat, but not if other decorations are worn.

SOCIETY NECKTIE: A necktie in the Society colors in four-in-hand and bow ties may be worn during business or social hours. The bow tie may be worn with the dinner coat to informal parties and meeting of the Society as well as to formal affairs.

SOCIETY CUMMERBUND: A cummerbund in the Society colors may be worn with the dinner coat to informal parties and meetings of the Society as well as to formal affairs. It may be worn with the dinner coat on any other formal occasion, at the member's option.

SOCIETY BLAZER PATCH: An embroidered cloth patch with clutch back may be worn with informal dress during business or social hours.

SOCIETY INSIGNE: The insigne of the Society consists of a badge pendant from a drape ribbon in the Society colors. It shall be worn with formal attire by members on any occasion when they assemble for a stated purpose or celebration, and may be worn on any ceremonial occasion. It is worn conspicuously on the left breast of the coat (off the lapel if possible) about four inches below the top of the shoulder. Members who are or have been officers of a State Society, including Gentlemen of the Council, may wear the badge with three jewels in the crown suspended from a neck ribbon in the Society colors.

GENERAL OFFICER'S SASH: The sash is worn only by officers and former officers of the General Society on formal occasions. It extends from the right shoulder diagonally to the left hip, with the Society insigne pendant from the prescribed bow at the intersection of the ends of the sash over the hip. The sash is worn with full evening dress, under the coat and over the waistcoat; never with the dinner coat or informal dress.

GOVERNOR'S STAR: The Governor's star is the distinctive insigne of the Governor General and the Governors of State Societies. It is worn with formal attire upon occasions of official or formal ceremony. It is displayed on the left front of the coat immediately above the waistline. When appropriate, in the judgment of the Governor, the Governor's star may be worn with the dinner coat. The Governor's star is never worn with the General Officer's sash, except by the Governor General.

FORMER GOVERNOR'S STAR: A miniature star is worn by former Governors of State Societies. The same regulations apply as those for wearing the Governor's star, except that this star may be worn with the General Officer's sash.

HONORARY GOVERNOR GENERAL'S STAR: A miniature star is worn by Honorary Governors General. The same regulations apply as those for wearing the Governor's star, except that this star may be worn with the General Officer's sash. Governors General and Honorary Governors General, who have previously served as Governors in their State Societies, may also wear the appropriate State star of such office immediately beneath the General Society star.

CHAPLAIN'S CROSS: An insigne for the Chaplain General and State Society Chaplains is worn on formal occasions during their term of office. The cross is worn suspended from a neck ribbon in the Society colors. The Chaplain General's cross is of silver finish; that State Society Chaplain's cross is of bronze finish.

SAMUEL VICTOR CONSTANT SOCIETY PIN: A pin worn by those elected to the Society named to honor the founding organizer of the Society of Colonial Wars, who did so much to bring it to life. It may be worn of the left lapel of the coat on informal and formal occasions.

WAR SERVICE INSIGNE: The War Service insigne of the Society of Colonial Wars consists of the Society War Cross medal suspended from a ribbon in the Society colors. It is worn on the left breast of the coat (off lapel, if possible), about four inches below the top of the shoulder, to the left of and on a line with the Society insigne. It may be worn when the Society insigne is not worn.

COLOR GUARD INSIGNE: The Color Guard insigne is worn suspected from a ribbon in the Society colors and a bar showing the name of the State. It is worn in the same manner as the War Service insigne.

MINIATURE INSIGNE: The Society insigne, the War Service insigne, and the Color Guard insigne are available in full size and miniature size. When worn together, they must be of the same size. When two or more medals are worn on the breast at the same time, all must be of the same size. However, the Society insigne suspended from the sash or neck ribbon is always full size. Miniature insigne are worn about four inches below the top of the shoulder. They are not worn on the pocket of the coat.

ADDITIONAL RULES CONCERNING THE WEARING OF INSIGNIA

When other decorations and medals are worn with the Society's insignia on ceremonial occasions, all should be in proper order from the wearer's right to left in one horizontal line across the upper left breast (and lapel if necessary) of the coat. To ensure proper alignment, the insignia should be mounted on a single metal bar, fastened to the coat; this bar should never be longer than the distance between the inner edge of the left lapel of the coat and the left armhole seam.

Medals may be overlapped on the right edges if necessary to conserve space.

The number of insignia that may be worn simultaneously is largely a matter of taste, but, in conformity with the best official standards of ceremonial practice, it is suggested that no more than one row of insignia be so displayed whether they be full size or miniature. Federal decorations are worn to the left of or above the Society insignia.

OTHER INSIGNIA

FEDERAL DECORATIONS AND MEDALS: For the proper order of display of military decorations and medals, the respective Armed Services regulations should be considered.

FOREIGN DECORATIONS: Foreign decorations take precedence immediately following all U. S. decorations and service medals, and are displayed from right to left in the chronological order of their award.

STATE DECORATIONS: For the proper order of display of state decorations, campaign medals and organizational and long service awards, the respective state regulations should be consulted.

INSIGNIA OF HEREDITARY, PATRIOTIC, AND VETERANS SOCIETIES: Such insignia should be displayed from right to left in chronological order of precedence.

SPECIAL INSIGNIA

In addition to the insignia prescribed for general use by all members of the Society, several State Societies have established special insignia in the form of appropriate badges, fourrageres, etc., for their Stewards and Color Guards. Although the wearing of such special insignia is governed by the local State Society concerned, it is suggested that the following general rules be observed:

SPECIAL BADGE: It may be worn on formal occasions exclusively, on the left breast of the coat, to the left and on a line with the Society insigne, War Cross medal, and/or Color Guard insigne. It may be worn when other medals are not worn.

FOURRAGERE: It may be worn on formal occasions, over the left shoulder. The knot of the cord is pinned to the coat at the point of intersection of the left shoulder seam of the coat and the outer edge of the coat collar. The braided portion of the cord passes down and under the left arm; the two single cords hang over the outside of the left arm; the ferrule is pendant over the left breast. The fourragere may be worn on the overcoat at official functions.

GENERAL

Members may obtain all Society insignia upon application to their State Secretaries. The latest information on the availability and prices of Society insignia appears regularly in The Gazette.

All sales of Society insignia are made upon condition that members who resign or are expelled will return their insignia to their State Secretaries. Insignia of deceased members may be so returned upon such terms and conditions as each State Society may elect. Society insignia retained by a former member's family as keepsakes may not be worn by anyone other than another member in good standing who is entitled to wear such.

A member should report the loss or theft of Society insignia to his State Society without delay. Such articles occasionally come into the possession of dealers in second-hand merchandise who offer them for public sale. Any member having knowledge of such offerings should immediately report the circumstances to his State Society.
